

PUBLIC CALL 4 LIBRINO

1) Promoting institutions

The Municipality of Ravenna, Department of Youth Policies, promotes in collaboration with the Associazione Strativari in Ravenna a call for the construction of two wall paintings. The Competition, which is part of the activities promoted by the Department, wants to promote an intervention of solidarity and sharing with the Rugby Association I Briganti of Librino (CT), victim of a recent act of mafia intimidation, through the realization of two murals at the Club House of the sport center.

2) Object of the call

The call is addressed to all the artists who intend to propose their own wall paintings that will redevelop two walls of the aforementioned hall, as better described in the attached plan.

The proposal for the two walls can be freely interpreted by the artist, but must have rugby and anti-racism as themes, as indicated by the Rugby Association itself.

3) Participation conditions

Participating at the call is free, there are no age limit, professional or educational qualification requirements. There is no participation fee, upon completion of the participation form and presentation of an indicative sketch of the intervention and at least 2 photos of already done wall paintings (the photos will not be disclosed). The sketch should represent to the Jury the work that would be realized, with expressed execution techniques (spray paintings, acrylics, blends, etc.). Each artist is allowed to participate with only one work, unpublished and never previously exhibited. The artists act as warrantor of the authenticity of their works. The realization of the work will be carried out by the Municipality of Ravenna.

4) Participation method

Will be allowed sketches for wall paintings made in complete freedom of style as well as in the choice of subjects as long as morality is guaranteed and that they are suitable for insertion into the facades concerned (identified in the annexes) harmoniously dialoguing with the context of the place.

5) Delivery

The works must be inserted - together with the application form completed and signed, in a folder named with the name and surname of the individual artist and sent to palazzorasponi2@comune.ra.it with a simple email or through a file sharing program. Please specify the artistic name in case there is one, in the application form and in the name of the folder.

Each file must be received in .pdf or .jpg format (high resolution images).

The works must be received no later than 10/06/2018.

Sketches received after the established deadline and non in conformity with the methods prescribed by this article will not be admitted to the evaluation.
